

HELPING PEOPLE HELP THE LAND

Wildlife Habitat Incentive Program (WHIP)

Special 2008 Sign-up Opportunity

WHAT: 75% Cost Share for Wildlife Habitat Improvements
Opportunity to work with USDA's Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) to add conservation practices to your land that will benefit wildlife habitat

HIGH PRIORITY WILDLIFE PROJECTS MAY:

- Restore Native Plant Communities
- Control Noxious or Invasive Weeds
- Install Fish-Friendly Practices
- Benefit Special-Status Species
- Enhance Riparian Areas

WHO: Agriculture or non-agriculture landowners are eligible

WHEN: March 24-28, 2008
Contracts will be announced April 11

WHERE: Private Landowners throughout California
Visit your local USDA NRCS Service Center

The Natural Resources Conservation Service provides leadership in a partnership effort to help people conserve, maintain and improve our natural resources and environment.

USDA-NRCS is an Equal Opportunity Provider and Employer.

