

Thank You Ocean, the Monterey Bay Sanctuary Foundation, the California Department of Fish and Game, and California State Parks have partnered to create a new web page on ThankYouOcean.org dedicated to the issue of marine protected areas (MPAs).

The web page www.thankyouocean.org/mpas

<http://cts.vresp.com/c/?ThankYouOcean.org/01e0ba822a/34c1d78adf/372abf7489> is intended to provide the public with basic information about why MPAs are an important tool for resource protection and an overview of both state and federally-designated MPAs. From this new page, the public can learn how they can get involved in MPAs from visiting their local MPA, to learning about monitoring efforts, to becoming a volunteer. Acting as a portal, the web page offers links where the public can easily find more in-depth information about MPAs from Thank You Ocean*s partners. Thanks to generous funding from the Monterey Bay Sanctuary Foundation, this new web page is also available in Spanish:

www.thankyouocean.org/espanol/amps

<http://cts.vresp.com/c/?ThankYouOcean.org/01e0ba822a/34c1d78adf/116a70bb0d> , complimenting Thank You Ocean*s existing comprehensive Spanish language website on ocean issues. Gracias a la generosa contribución financiera del Monterey Bay Sanctuary Foundation, este nuevo sitio en internet también está disponible en Español: www.thankyouocean.org/espanol/amps

<http://cts.vresp.com/c/?ThankYouOcean.org/01e0ba822a/34c1d78adf/9f43f682df> . Este nuevo sitio es complementario a los otros recursos en Español sobre asuntos marinos que ofrece la campaña de Thank You Ocean. We invite you to visit the new web pages and let us know what you think.
